CHABAD LEADERSHIP FORUM

PROGRAM

26 Cheshvan, 5773
November 11, 2012
The Future of European Jewry
Rabbi Yitzchak Lowenthal, Copenhagen, Denmark

Anti-Semitism is reemerging, governments are attempting to ban Jewish practices, secularism lures the next generation. Chabad's growing role in Europe puts it on the cutting edge of these issues.

Becoming a Global Resource
Rabbi Yosef Chaim Kantor, Bangkok, Thailand

Be it Israeli Trekkers in Nepal, tourists in Yellowstone, a Tsunami in Japan, forest fires in Israel or floods in Australia, Chabad is there. How Chabad has become the “first responder” of world Jewry and resource for Jews.

From the Storefront to the Mainstream Community
Rabbi Yossi New, Atlanta Georgia

In the US and abroad Chabad centers are growing from humble beginnings to diverse community centers. What is the key to this growth and to retaining our unique approach as our community role broadens.

7:30 A.M. TANYA - CHASSIDIC PHILOSOPHY
Taking Responsibility: A mystical perspective on the Mitzvah of Tzedakah.

8:00 A.M. SHACHARIT
Morning Prayer Services

8:30 A.M. BREAKFAST BUFFET
Celebrating Jewish Life
Rabbi Abba Perlmutter, Long Beach, California

We are witnessing a remarkable renaissance of Judaism across the globe. By celebrating our traditions we learn to treasure the beauty of Judaism.

9:30 A.M THE FIRST MISSION IN THE TORAH
The biblical narrative of Abraham teaches us vital lessons of the first mission in Jewish tradition. Drawing on the classical teachings of Talmud, midrash and chassidic sources we will explore the concept of Shlichut in Judaism.

10:45 A.M. SYMPOSIUM: WHY CHABAD?
In recent decades Chabad has taken a leadership role in Jewish life. How has it impacted my community. An opportunity for delegates to exchange experiences.

12:15 P.M. SMORGASBORD LUNCHEON
A chance to meet & greet delegates, Shluchim and members of the leadership of Lubavitch World Headquarters.

1:30 P.M. MEETING GLOBAL CHALLENGES
Greetings: Rabbi Yehuda Krinsky, Brooklyn, NY
Moderator: Rabbi Dovid Eliezrie. Yorba Linda, California
